WALKING TOUR LANDMARKS

1. MARTYRS' CROSS
   Look down to see the site where the Oxford Martyrs — Anglican bishops Hugh Latimer, Nicholas Ridley, and Thomas Cranmer — were burnt at the stake for heresy in 1555.

2. SHELDONIAN THEATRE
   Designed by Sir Christopher Wren and built in 1668, it is one of the architectural jewels of Oxford. Note the chain of stone-carved masks that enclose and protect this magnificent building.

3. BODLEIAN LIBRARY
   Opened in 1602 and now housing upwards of 11 million volumes over 117 miles of shelving. But books cannot be lent — even King Charles I was refused permission in 1645.

4. RADCLIFFE CAMERA
   Built in 1749 to house the Radcliffe Science Library and now a reading room for the Bodleian Library. Oxford's most impressive piece of classical architecture.

5. CHRIST CHURCH
   Originally founded by Cardinal Wolsey as Cardinal's College in 1524. Traditionally, it has been considered the most aristocratic college at the University of Oxford.
